Appellant John Doe (“Appellant”) respectfully requests this Court grant Appellant’s motion to file a separate reply to the Amicus Brief of Minnesota Private College Council.

The Amicus Brief of Minnesota Private College Council raises issues, and if This Court is at all going to consider such issues, Appellant should be allowed to reply to the same. Any other result would not be fair to Appellant. Further, due to the length and content of Minnesota Private College Council’s Amicus Brief, it would be next to impossible for Appellant to properly prepare a reply brief to include a comprehensive reply to both the Appellee’s Responsive Brief and the Amicus Brief of Minnesota Private College Council in one document with a 6,500 word count. As such, Appellant hereby seeks leave from This Court, allowing him to file a separate reply brief to the Amicus Brief of Minnesota Private College Council.
